Grain Inspection, Packers & Stockyards Administration

TITLE: “Clear Title”—Protection for Purchasers of Farm Products

OMB CONTROL NUMBER: 0580-0016

SUMMARY OF COLLECTION: Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) have the responsibility for the Clear Title Program (Section 1324 of the Food Security Act of 1985. Clear Title Program was enacted to facilitate interstate commerce in farm products and protect purchasers of farm products by enabling States to establish central filing systems. The Clear Title Program purpose is to remove burden on and obstruction to interstate commerce in farm products such as double payment for the products, once at the time of purchase and again when the seller fails to repay the lender. The Food Security Act of 1985 permits the states to establish “central filing systems’. These central filing systems notify buyers of farm products of any mortgages or liens on the products.

NEED AND USE OF THE INFORMATION: A state submits information one time to GIPSA when applying for certification. The type of information required by the regulations includes how the system will operate, information to be submitted to the State for inclusion in the
